experience a sense of community

Life can be much more enjoyable being part of a community. Retirement communities promote a social environment to meet friends, and experience a range of new activities and pursuits.

Hastings Point Retirement Community maximises social opportunities through the provision of lounges, outdoor pools, gymnasium, hairdressing salon, movie theatre, and snooker lounge. A new café is planned for 2012.

Experience a new pursuit or rediscover an old passion. Participate in the exercise classes or partake in the travel or social events. The benefit of a retirement community is the choices available to you.

experience convenience

Hastings Point Retirement Community is located between the relaxed coastal towns of Hastings Point and Pottsville on the Tweed Coast. Shopping facilities, cafés and general day to day amenities are a short drive away. Tweed Heads is only a 20 minute drive north, and there you will find major shopping, hospital, cinemas and more.

Nestled between the Pacific Ocean to the east, and lush hinterland to the west, Hastings Point Retirement Community provides a unique seaside living opportunity. A two minute walk through nature reserve and you're at a pristine and expansive beach that is never overcrowded.

With a public bus stop at the front entrance of the retirement community, and the community bus frequenting locals shops and attractions on a regular basis, there's always the opportunity to experience the local hospitality and sights.
