

Note from the Operator: At Laurieton Residential Resort, our residents own their homes outright while also enjoying the benefits of leasing the land site from the resort owner. The many advantages of this structure include lower initial purchase price, NO stamp duty, NO body corporate fees and NO Council general rates. Many residents will qualify for government rent assistance to reduce the weekly fees for land rental. Ask one of our friendly Sales Consultants for more information on this modern day approach to retirement living.