

Privacy Statement

This statement has been prepared in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

In attending our open house exhibition today, we have asked you to provide us with our name, address, contact details and other personal information. The owners reserve the right to not permit access to the property if this information is not provided. If you are not comfortable providing your personal information, please advise our representative who will confirm if you can attend the open house exhibition anonymously.

The information we collect may be used by the Independent Property Group¹:

- (a) to send news, information about our activities and general promotional material which we believe may be useful to you;
- (b) to monitor and profile who is attending our open house exhibitions, including to arrange for the sale or lease of this property (as applicable).

If you do not wish to have the information you provide us used in this manner, you must inform us immediately.

We will not sell the information you have given us to third parties. We may share the information you have given to us to third parties so that we can conduct our business (and we encourage you to read our Privacy Policy for full details of this). All information which we collect is kept confidential to the best of our ability.

You are entitled to have access to any information relating to you which you have previously supplied to us. You are entitled to request changes or corrections to the information. You may request that we delete or de-identify your personal information, unless we are required by law to retain it.
